Office of the Secretary General

Dear Mr. Secretary General

I wish to thank you most sincerely for your very thoughtful letter and best wishes for 2021. I would also like to extend to you my very best wishes for a New Year marked by good health, prosperity, and happiness.

The IPU continues to enjoy excellent relations and cooperation with the Asian Parliamentary Assembly and I look forward to strengthening these relations in 2021.

The IPU remains steadfast in its mission to promote strong and effective parliaments that are representative and beneficial to the lives of the people. Moreover, the IPU will also continue to serve as a forum for dialogue and for building bridges as we strive to build a better world that is more secure, peaceful, conducive to the development of the human potential, and able to collectively respond quickly in the face of global challenges.

Yours sincerely,

Martin Chungong
Secretary General
