Excellency,

It is with great pleasure that I extend my warmest congratulations to Your Excellency on the occasion of your re-election as Speaker of the Shura Council of the State of Qatar for the second legislative term.

Your invaluable experience gained over years of dedicated service in the leadership of the Shura Council, will undoubtedly enable you to formulate visionary policies and initiatives aimed at further strengthening cooperation with regional and international parliamentary organizations in the new term of legislature.

I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the active role of the Parliament of Qatar in fostering cooperation with the Asian Parliamentary Assembly (APA) since affiliation of your Parliament a full member.

The APA delegations representing the Shura Council have consistently contributed insightful perspectives and engaged constructively with their parliamentary counterparts through meaningful exchanges during APA meetings.
